

Leadership: The art of getting someone else to do something you want done because he wants to do it.

There go the people.
I must follow them for
I am their leader.

The real leader has no need to lead, he is content to point the way.

Go to the people. Learn from them.
Live with them. Start with what they know. Build with what they have. The best of leaders when the job is done, when the task is accomplished, the people will say we have done it ourselves.

A leader is a dealer in hope.

He who has never learned to obey
cannot be a good
commander.

Leadership does not always wear the harness of compromise.

To do great things is difficult; but to command great things
is more difficult.

I must follow the people. Am I not their leader?

Leadership and learning are indispensable to each other.

The key to successful leadership today is influence, not authority.
